PRESIDENT COULDN'T
New England economy and Secretary Mellon's knowledge of business and finance make a valuable team for the United States.

Taxes have been cut, yet the government with $70,000,000 surplus, all expenses paid, and the national debt cut down by $100,000,000, THAT IS EFFICIENCY.

MR. MELLON doesn't know it, but he may find himself the leading Presidential candidate in 1928, if President Coolidge should decide not to succeed himself.

If the President wants the job, he will have it, and there won't be any "third-term" question. Coolidge has been elected ONCE, and is entitled to a second election.

The second choice undoubtedly will be Mellon. This country, with its billions of debt, is a huge business proposition, and needs a competent business man.

THE CABINET of Zwiir Pasha, ruler in Cairo, would reject John D. Rockefeller, Jr., offer of $10,000,000 to build and endow a magnificent museum in Egypt. Eastern rulers are suspicious, fear a plot. Perhaps they think John D. Rockefeller would like to control the Nile.

If those Egyptian gentlemen do not want those Rockefeller millions, they can easily be spent here at Rockefeller headquarters. Every great American part should have a "mother's building," in which mothers could change the underclothing of their young babies, in case of need, wash those babies in warm water with pure soap, and buy pure milk at cost.

Ten million dollars rejected for Egypt might supply many useful buildings here at home. American babies and their mothers are more important than Egyptian museums and their mummies.

A RECORD CROWD tried to attend the fight between drys and wets in the Senate. Senator Bruce accused the drys of spending $2,500,000 in one year to "pull over" prohibition.

If they spent their own money legally, their enthusiasm deserves praise. Bootleggers profit by prohibition, sincere drys do not.

THE WETS say they will prove "the dry law is a failure." Prohibition has certainly made it impossible to obtain the comparatively mild stimulants, without interfering seriously with the distribution of whiskey and gin.

If that is failure, then prohibition has failed.

Monmouth, N.J., April 7.—Mrs. Grace H. Labar was granted a divorce today from Eugene L. Labar, wealthy lumberman, on the ground of cruel and abusive treatment.

ST. JOHN'S N. F. April 7 (A.P.).—The British bank steamer Apollo is disabled off Cape Race with her steering gear broken, and has sent out a call for assistance. A message from the vessel interrupted as 250 miles southeast of Cape Race.

WOMAN SEIZED BY ANGRY MOB AS SHE WOUNDS PREMIER

Rome, April 7 (I.N.S.).—Premier Mussolini had a narrow escape from death today, at the hands of a woman assailant. The Premier was shot and slightly wounded by a woman identified as Violet Albina Gibson, sister of Lord Ashbourne, of Ireland, as he left the International Congress of Surgeons, where he had delivered an address.

Mussolini was just about to step into his automobile and depart for Chigi Palace when the woman fired. The bullet was aimed at the Premier's head. It hit his nose, wounding him slightly.

The woman is said to be a religious fanatic. Immediate confusion broke out in the crowds that had gathered to pay a tribute to the Premier, who was about to leave for Tripoli.

In the excitement Mussolini, although bleeding from his wound, was the calmest person present. The bullet pierced both nostrils and grazed the Premier's cheek.

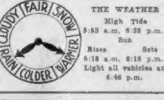

Woman Waves Revolver Before Menacing Mob

The woman, who is about fifty years old, fired point-blank from close range. She then backed off, waving the smoking gun in her hand. She was quickly seized and overpowered by the crowd.

Mussolini intervened and gave orders to those about him to take immediate steps to prevent disorders or reprisals. The crowd was in a rage, and it was only with the greatest difficulty that the carabinieri were able to rescue the woman and rush her to prison.

When she the Fascist chief from staggered and clapped a hand to his nose, from which the blood streamed. Then he regained the composure for which he is noted.

"A woman!" he exclaimed. "Fancy, as though to emphasize the slight nature of the wound, Mussolini this afternoon presided at a ceremony of presentation of the provincial secretaries of the Fascist party to the new party directorate. Despite the personal orders of Mussolini for no reprisals, and the Continued on Page 3, Column 1.

Mussolini's Assailant Crazy Over Religion

London, April 7 (A.P.)—The woman who today attempted to assassinate Premier Mussolini of Italy was today identified here as the Violet Albina Gibson, sister of Lord Ashbourne.

Miss Gibson is known in England and Ireland as a religious enthusiast. A year ago Miss Gibson attempted suicide in Rome, by shooting herself while in ecstasies of religious fervor.

Mussolini Calmest Man as He Escapes Death

Rome, April 7 (A.P.)—The details of the attempt on the life of Premier Mussolini, as given out by the semi-official agency today, follow: After the inauguration of the International Congress of Surgery, the Premier came out of the Capitol accompanied by several doctors, among them the famous Italian surgeon, Giuseppe Bazzani, and other members of the Congress.

The crowd around the Premier, and a group of foreign dispatchers, the Premier immediately responded by smiling and saluting with his hand. He walked toward the middle of the square to reach his automobile. As he was crossing the square, surrounded by the crowd, a woman of about fifty, dressed in a dark gown, drew a re-

BUDLONGS WILL STAGE THEIR DOMESTIC DRAMA IN COURT AT NEWPORT

Jean Margaret Budlong, accused by her husband of extreme cruelty, is to again defend herself against separation proceedings in the Newport Superior Court.

One of the garments made famous last year by Mrs. Budlong in her "shir-barrage" on her husband. On the shirt she scribbled messages of her love.

Milton and John Budlong, two younger children of the couple. Their mother last summer harried herself in the New York apartment of her husband, and the serious events that occurred around Newport, New York and Boston society, where they are well known.

Milton J. Budlong, vice-president of the North Texas Oil Company, who will save the $28 a month he is paying his wife if he wins separation.

'YOUR YEARS NUMBERED' BETRAVER WARNED

Accuses "Judas" of Underworld Code as the Real Slayer of Skelly

Up through the clay in a bleak and scraggly corner of Mount St. Benedict Cemetery in Hartford, Ct., the thin, nervous fingers of Gerald Chapman penned an ironical message of farewell to Walter Shean of Springfield.

The letter accused Shean of committing the murder for which Chapman was hanged. "Dear Brave Heart," the "supercriminal" addressed his former friend that turned betrayer. And in factious words he told Shean that his days on earth are numbered.

Within the walls of the Hartford County Jail where Shean has crouched for the year passed since Chapman's conviction, the Springfield man received the message from the dead. He will be tried only for breaking and entering.

Judas, he said, and "Benedict Arnold" and "skunk." "I know that what you have already offered is infinitesimal compared with what you will suffer," the dead man's letter said.

Many, some of your ancestors were shot in the back at the Battle of Bull Run, another line said, and still others were.

If you were here you would probably be shouting for the smothering. Continued on Page 6, Column 1.

GUILT DENIED BY CHAPMAN TO VERY LAST

Springfield, April 7 (A.P.)—Atorney Jay M. Wiley, one of the counsel for Gerald Chapman, confirmed in part today a statement published in Hartford purporting to have come from him. He declared that he had visited Chapman in his cell a few hours before he was hanged, and that Chapman had protested that he was innocent of the death of Patrolman Skelly of New Britain.

STAGE FOLK IN COURTSHIP OF 24 HOURS

Falling in their plan to secure a waiver of the five-day marriage law, James C. Pall, actor and assistant stage manager of "Rain," and his fiancée, Miss Kay Proctor of New York, arranged a tash wedding which will take place en route from the Park Theatre in the south station next Sunday morning when the entire "Rain" company will board the New York train.

FAMED HOTEL AT BANFF BURNS

Calgary, Alta., April 6 (A.P.)—The north wing of the palatial Banff Springs Hotel at Banff, Alberta, has been destroyed by fire which broke out today and the remainder of the structure was still threatened early this afternoon.

At 11:30 o'clock 6:30 p. m., eastern standard time it appeared that the entire section was doomed. The fire-fighting forces of the Canadian Pacific Railway and the town made vain efforts to check the conflagration. An appeal was sent to Calgary, 60 miles east, and fire apparatus was rushed to Banff on a special train.

TAXI WEDDING WHEN 5-DAY LIMIT IS OFF

James C. Pall, actor and assistant stage manager of "Rain," and Kay Proctor, New York movie actress, who will be married in a taxi on the way from the Park Theatre to the South Station, shortly after the five-day limit expires. Lack of time between packing up at the close of the show's run and train departure is responsible for the idea.

SHIRT BARRAGE IN BUDLONG COURT CASE

Newport, R. I., April 7.—The famous "shirt barrage" of Mrs. Jean M. Budlong, which defied New York as more than a year ago, will be aired in all its fulsome detail in Superior Court here as a result of a decision made today. Judge Walsh set the date of June 21 for trial of Milton J. Budlong's legal separation action, filed last Fall, in which he charges extreme cruelty, the basis of which, it is understood, will be the shirt-throwing episode in the seventy-second street building home in New York.

The date was set at the request of Cornelius C. Moore, representing Mrs. Budlong, and was agreed to by Chauncey Wheeler, one of her husband's counsel, who added that it should be a special session as the hearing will require perhaps a month.

Julius Walsh said the end of the regular June session would be available for a special session and assigned the hearing to June 21, at which time Judge Everett W. Blodgett will be on the bench.

Budlong brought suit for legal separation as his residence in Rhode Island has not been long enough to permit the bringing of a divorce action. He must maintain his charge of extreme cruelty in order to get a divorce.

THUG HOLDS UP HARVARD MEN AT GUN POINT

An armed thief invaded Matthew Hall, one of the Harvard yard dormitories, took a gold watch from the suite of W. J. and

J. Buck, a sophomore, and was releasing the rooms of Charles Albertson and Nathaniel Chappell when they surprised him.

Drawing a revolver the thief locked Chappell and Albertson into a corner and then locked out of the suite himself, dashing down the stairs from the third floor and across the yard, while the students shouted an alarm from windows.

Harvard yard policemen and a large crowd of students who gathered were unable to find any trace of the hold-up man, although it was thought he had sought safety by hiding in another dormitory. Cambridge police have a good description of the man, who was said to be a sophomore.

Edward T. Murphy of Fall River was today appointed District Attorney of the Southern District of Massachusetts by the death of District Attorney Stanley P. Hall. Murphy served as first assistant to the latter until the latter's death a week ago.

STORY OF 'SPIRITING' AWAY PROSPECTIVE WARD CASE WITNESSES CAUSES STIR

MRS. WALTER S. WARD AND CHILDREN. Mrs. Ward testified for Ward at his trial for the slaying of Clarence M. Peters, Haverrill youth. Ward admitted the killing, and said Peters was in a black-mail ring.—Int. News Photo.

WALTER S. WARD. He was acquitted at White Plains, N. Y., in 1923. James J. Cunningham, important witness at the trial, says that many prospective witnesses were persuaded to leave the State. This charge may require case.

WALTER S. WARD'S HOME AT NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y. The former marine is said to have spent a day at this estate, the guest of Ward, just prior to his tragic death. Ward, after he carried out his duties, had paid the Haverrill youth $20,000 blackmail money. Former officials see from a probe of Cunningham's story.—Int. News Photo.

MR. AND MRS. ELDREDGE PETERS. The Haverrill couple testified at Ward's trial and called the court's attention to the fact that they later brought suit for $20,000 against Ward.—Int. News Photo.

Boston newspapers are remarkably free from fraudulent advertising, Kenneth B. Backman, manager of the Boston Better Business Commission, told members of the Boston Advertising Club at their weekly luncheon at Hotel Bellevue. Hundreds of thousands of dollars in advertising of questionable nature have been rejected by the newspapers who are co-operating with the commission, he said.

Mr. Backman, in his talk, stressed the work that the commission has done in this city to fight against business frauds. Millions of dollars have been saved by consumers through these efforts, he told the advertising men.

The Better Business Commission protects not only the buying public but also the investor, he said, by investigating the sale of securities.

OUT FRAUD DEALERS

Mr. Backman cited as an example of the work done by the commission, the case of a jewelry auctioneer who had watered rich in Boston at the expense of the public. His representations by wholesale and retail for dealers have also received the attention of the commission. Investigators found that he had been selling as real skin and other wares of high priced fur, and that the city was to a fraudulent real estate dealings and other fly-by-night schemes, Mr. Backman said.

A MORAL FORCE

The commission conducted a successful nationwide drive against purveyors of business frauds by using the moral force of the newspapers. The result was that those who could not be reached by the commission went to the wall.

Mr. Backman said, the investigation of all real estate transactions in Florida, a list showing the record and qualifications of those who were employed and sent out to all Better Business Commission offices in the country.

'LOVE NEST' 11 DRAW $1,000 IN RUM FINES

Plates totaling $1,000 and suspended 10 all sentences of twelve months were meted out today by Judge Peters to eleven men convicted by a jury in Federal District Court ten days ago of having brought ashore and stored prohibited liquors at East Wharves in November of last year.

State police officers made a Sunday morning raid on "The Love Nest," a cottage occupied by the defendants on November 14 last, and in a cottage adjoining discovered a cache of champagne and whiskey valued at $3,000.

Those sentenced today were William Hinton, who was fined $150 and given a suspended sentence of 3 months; Charles Ernest, fined $100; George Parker, fined $100 and given a suspended sentence of 3 months; Byron Cassidy, fined $100; Joseph Brennan, fined $100 and Walter H. Finn, fined a similar amount. All the foregoing defendants gave Boston addresses.

Fred Harrington and Thomas H. Kelley of Fairhaven were fined $150 each and Kelley was given a suspended sentence of 3 months and a fine of $100.

Harry H. Stevens and Edward Young of New Bedford were fined $50 each as was Hugh Simmons of Providence.

COP IN MAIL TRUCK STOPS RUNAWAY HORSE

A daring stop of a runaway horse was made in Somerville today by Patrolman Frank J. Roche from the running board of a mail truck.

The horse, attached to a wagon of M. P. Hood & Sons, started running from Cedar street and Broadway, proceeded along Broadway and through Madison square, while the driver was making collections.

Patrolman Roche halted a mail truck, leaped on the running board and, as the truck overtook the frightened animal, reached out and seized it by the bridle, bringing it to a stop after a three-quarter mile run.

SNOW HITS AT BRAVES' AMBITIONS

Inclement Weather Causes a Halt in Triumphant Northward March of the Club

By NICK FLATLEY.

Baltimore, April 7.—The east, snow and cold weather which prevented yesterday's game between the Braves and Baltimore has caused a halt to the club's triumphant march northward.

The rain which was forecast for the game was not only a disappointment to the fans but also to the players. The game was called off at 1:30 p. m. because of the weather. The Braves had been on their way to Baltimore for several days and had been playing well. The fans were expecting a big game and were disappointed that it was called off.

BY ACT of CONGRESS

...and the loyal patronage of millions of American smokers

White Owls

are NOW

3 for 20 cents

EARS AGO we made a promise that, whenever conditions improved, smokers of White Owls would receive the benefit at the earliest possible moment...

...THIS, despite the fact that White Owls always have been such remarkable value that the profit on each cigar has been but a fraction of a cent.

AND SO, with pleasure, we now announce that such a moment has arrived. Congress has reduced the tax rate on cigars, and we are passing along this reduction directly to the public.

IT IS OBVIOUSLY impossible to add to the quality of White Owls. Mass production and enormous purchasing resources, made possible by the loyal support of millions of friends, enable us to use tobacco from the finest crop in years. Smokers, everywhere, are commenting on the greater smoothness of taste that this mellow, wonder-crop has provided. So, in order to give the public the full benefit of this tax reduction, we have reduced the price of White Owls. You can now get three of these popular cigars for 20 cents instead of the usual two for 15 cents.

IN MAKING this announcement, we wish to thank the millions of smokers who in the past, have enabled us to give such remarkable value and who now, by their constant patronage permit us to give—the same outstanding White Owl value but, NOW, at 3 for 20 cents
